PARDON OUR PROGRESS!

The West Quad Construction Project will create another quadrangle. The new West Quad building will house several student services—admissions, financial aid, scholarships, the bursar, and the registrar—and a state-of-the-art physical education and athletics facility, with gymnasiums, a pool, dance studio, racquetball courts, fitness center, and teaching and research labs. For more information, visit the Brooklyn College Web site.

FAVORITE PLACES There's plenty to do and see at Brooklyn College!

Library Café

Open 24/7. A quiet, comfortable place to surf the Net or write a paper, recently expanded to house 80 computers, 18 laptop portals, group-study rooms, a lounge, and coffee bar.

Lily Pond

A perfect spot for reading or quiet conversation.

Student Center

Join a student club! Hear a distinguished guest speaker! Shoot some pool! Grab a snack!

Starbucks Coffee

For the java dependent, two convenient locations: Boylan Hall Cafeteria, Library Café.

Georgian Room

A pleasant dining room away from the cafeteria hubbub. (Lower level, Boylan Hall. Entrance near the bookstore.)

Brooklyn Center for the Performing Arts

A full season of great performances: music, dance, special guests.

Learning Center

Peer tutors help with course work, test preparation, term papers. Free!

Recreation and Athletics Center

If you are a student, stop by to work out at the gym or find out how to join a team— intramural or NCAA Division III—for fun and fitness. Local residents, check out affordable recreation passes for use of tennis courts, fitness center, and basketball gym. Contact the Recreation, Intramurals, and Athletics Office, 125 Roosevelt Hall, or call 951-5366.

West End Building—The W.E.B.

Formerly known as the Field Library, the West End Building (W.E.B.) houses computing labs (250 computers, lounge areas, a video conference facility, scanners, DVD writing, and free laser printing); student club offices; the Department of Film; and the Office of Student Testing (information on CUNY Assessment Tests, Calculus Placement Test, Transfer Students Writing Test, and CUNY Proficiency Exam).

Computer Sites

Log on at the Learning Center, Library Café, Library, New Media Center, Boylan Cafeteria Web kiosks, Student Center Computer Corner and Web kiosks, or the WEB Computing Labs.

Wireless Hot Spots. Go plugless in Boylan Cafeteria, Brooklyn College Library, Library Café, WEB Computing Labs, the Quad between Boylan and Ingersoll, Learning Center, Honors Academy, and the Student Center Cafeteria.

Library

The library is open to students, faculty, and staff. For community residents, there are two membership levels: 1) an access card to use reading rooms, books and materials, electronic databases, and the Internet; 2) a borrowing card that permits all of the above plus borrowing privileges. For more information and for rates, contact the circulation desk, 951-5346 or 951-5335.

Y.E.S.S. Center

The Yes to Evening Student Service Center assists undergraduate and graduate students with many procedures, including tuition payment, ID Card validation, applications for graduation, and obtaining transcripts. Hours: Monday–Thursday, 4–8:30 p.m., and the first Saturday and Sunday of every month, 10 a.m.–1 p.m.
