It's paid for with student fees and it's right across the street from campus. Yet for some reason not too many BC students know all there is to do at The Student Center on Campus Road. There are some who are not even aware it exists! The Student Center is the hub of much of the activity going on at the college.

Let's take a quick tour. There are aerobics classes every Monday and Wednesday in the Lower Level. There is also a Center for student and community volunteering. On the 1st floor there are administrative offices, an Information Desk and a Computer Corner.

On the 2nd floor there is a game room with pool tables, video arcade games and ping-pong tables to help students ease the time away. Students can also sit down, relax and watch TV in the lounge area. Every Tuesday and Thursday there is a FILM RAPS program featuring a popular movie and discussion afterward.

The 3rd floor houses the Offices of Student Development, Central Depository and the three Student Governments. On the 4th, 5th, 6th and Penthouse floors all the latest seminars, special lectures, student meetings, banquets and special functions take place. There's something going on there almost every school day. Stop by and check it out for yourself!

The Student Center (formerly known as SUBO) is on Campus Road/East 27th Street. It's open 8:30am -11:00pm, Mon. – Thursday, and until 4pm on Friday, and on weekend nights when there are scheduled activities.

Attend the Hour of Power – the Dean's Hour!

One of the best ways for students to get their opinions heard is at the monthly Dean's Hour, presided over by Dean Milga Morales of the Office for Student Life, Assistant Dean Jacqueline Williams and Assistant Dean Vanessa Green. Every month they put aside an hour's time to listen and discuss the ideas and problems of students and try to discover ways to improve "Student Life" on campus. The Y.E.S.S. Center for Evening Students was one of the many ideas and programs that evolved out of the Dean's Hour.

Fewer students than we'd like take advantage of the Dean's Hour, so that's why we want to get the word out! Here's a chance to make a difference and make constructive changes or improvements to life at Brooklyn College. You can attend and listen to what other students think and join in the conversation! This month's Dean's Hour is on Wed. April 6 at 9:30 am and May's Dean's Hour is on Wed. May 4 at 5pm, both in the State Lounge in the Student Center. For more info call (718) 951-5352 or stop by our office at 2113 Boylan.

The Sisterhood of Alpha Epsilon Phi Sorority Wants You!

Alpha Epsilon Phi Sorority is a national sorority made up of "many hearts, one purpose." Within Greek life, numerous sisters have served on the executive board of the InterGreek Council. Through their annual Greek awards, AEPi unites the Greek community while raising around $1000 to benefit the Elizabeth Glaser Pediatric AIDS Foundation. Many of their sisters joined other Greeks in numerous events such as the Multiple Sclerosis walk. They have been on the winning team numerous times for Greek Games and the annual Greek Goddess competition has been won by their sisters five times!

With all of these activities, the sisters of AEPi still find time to keep up high academic standards. Alpha Epsilon sisters are in honors programs and on the Dean's List. Sisters are in TOCA, Golden Key Honor Society, Tennis team, Italian Club, Hillel, LGBTA, and other clubs, maintaining their activity outside of Greek life.

Latin Women strive to do as much as they can to stand out from other clubs. Their Lupus workshop and their successful "Let's Talk about Sex" workshop were very well attended by an array of other clubs, and provided them with useful information. Numerous events, such as their children's Halloween party, were held in 0700 James Hall . Along with the Black Student Union, Latin Women co-sponsored "Celebrating Diversity: Flags from around the World", a Campus Beautification project. Latin Women members took part in the "Making Strides Against Breast Cancer" walk in Central Park.

Focus on Activities and Services

BC Cares - Relief Efforts are Still a Priority

Although the deadly Tsunami that wreaked havoc in South East Asia is over, its devastation lives on. Brooklyn College is doing its part to increase awareness and aid for those in need. Over 10 clubs participated in a coalition (called together by NYPIRG) that raised over two hundred dollars for UNICEF in a special Valentine's Day event. But efforts did not end there.

The coalition, comprising of Center for Diversity, Latin Women, Broeklundian, RAW, Veteran Affairs, Forensics, U.S.S., OICE, The Kingsman, Philosophy Society, Arts of Democracy, V-Day Committee, MEDO and Student Life, decided to form an umbrella group called BC CARE – Brooklyn College Coalition to Aid the Relief Effort. Its goal is to continue to support the Tsunami Relief effort and other efforts that will last beyond the current crisis. It would be a rapid response association to raise funds and spread knowledge of any natural disasters that affect this country or others (like the hurricanes in the Caribbean). SEEDS of Hope, Black Family and the Black Students Union are also involved in Tsunami fundraising.

If you'd like to assist in anyway or would just like more information on BC CARE and ongoing relief efforts contact Dave Bryan at the Office for Student Life, 2113 Boylan Hall, or email him at Dbryan@brooklyn.cuny.edu or call (781) 951-5352. Donations can be deposited to the BC Disaster Relief Fund in Central Depository, 314 Student Center. Counseling is also available at Personal Counseling in 0302 James Hall.

The Brooklyn College Health Clinic Celebrates 10 Years of Providing Free Care

The BC Health Clinic is celebrating 10 years of providing free primary care to undergraduate and graduate students of the college with a symposium on the theme of "Access to Health Care", which is something of importance to Brooklyn College students, many of whom are uninsured.

The event will be moderated by award-winning journalist and WNYC radio host Brian Lehrer, M.P.H. and speakers will include Pulitzer Prize-winning author and Senior Fellow at the Council of Foreign Relations Laurie Garrett, Ph.D. along with BC Alumni & Staff. The symposium will be held on April 7, 2005 at 6 p.m. at the Gold Room in the Student Center. Suggested admission is $10 ($5 for students) with a reception to follow.

Clinical care at the Health Clinic is provided by nurse practitioners (NP) and physician assistants (PA). They offer evaluation and treatment of acute and chronic medical conditions and counseling on how best to avoid disease and maintain good health. The licensed providers on staff have had specialized training to do medical check-ups and to diagnose and treat illnesses. They can also order lab tests and prescribe medications.

Funding for the clinic comes mostly from the $10 per semester student activity fee. BC grad and undergrad students are entitled to free and unlimited visits. There are modest fees for prescription medications, off-site lab tests and some immunizations. Check with the Clinic office to find out the fee prices. Students enrolled in CUNY

From the Dean's Desk

Greetings to all Brooklyn College students:

The newsletter you have in hand or are reading on-line is the result of much hard work and dedication on the part of Jack Ucciardino, a CUNY counseling assistant in the Office of the Dean for Student Life. Jack has almost single handedly planned the newsletter, recruited the writers, and gathered the information for much of the content. I want to thank him on behalf of the Division of Student Life.

The purpose of the newsletter is to inform students and other members of the Brooklyn College community of many of the activities and programs available on campus, particularly those sponsored by the Division of Student Life and the clubs and organizations. It is expected that once informed, students will become excited and actively engaged in campus life. This is not easy on a commuter campus, but those students who excel academically and demonstrate involvement in co-curricular activities where they learn useful skills, succeed in College and are on their way to rewarding careers.

I want to also promote our Dean's Hour which Jack has named the "hour of power" and is an open ended agenda session where students can bring their concerns, questions and recommendations. The expectation is that the Deans of the Division of Student Life will also bring forward important information and inform students of resources available to them.

This year we will be producing a second issue of the newsletter in early May and invite your ideas and your contributions. The sooner you can suggest them, the likelier they will end up in the newsletter. What we're looking for are things that are happening (or will happen) on campus that you believe should be highlighted or perhaps suggestions of ways that more students can be aware of the services available to them. All comments you have are welcome.

Finally, this newsletter was published several times in the past under the direction of a part time staff member named Joseph Starr. Joe has been ill this semester but I want to recognize his past contributions to the newsletter and wish him the well on behalf of all of us on the Brooklyn College campus.
