

Brooklyn College Study Abroad in India

Winter 2009

Global Health

A 3-week field program in Maharashtra, India. Explore global health at the local level in a rural primary health care setting.

Attend lectures by prominent India physicians, visit villages, observe local health practitioners. Through classroom learning and fieldwork experiences learn about current international health issues and the application of health policy. Visit sites of historical and cultural interest.

Earn up to 6 credits- Health and Globalization Anth 34.5/H&N Sci 64 (3 credits) and Fieldwork (3 credits)

Contact:

Professor Patricia Antonello

antoniello1@aol.com 718 951 5640

