

CHILDREN & YOUTH STUDIES PROGRAM

Gertrud Lenzer Founder's Award
for an Outstanding Senior
Fall 2018 & Spring 2019 Graduates

APPLICATION

The Gertrud Lenzer Founder's Award for an Outstanding Senior in Children and Youth Studies at Brooklyn College, The City University of New York, is given in the name of Professor Gertrud Lenzer who founded the first program of its kind here in 1991. In the spirit of Professor Lenzer's dedication to the students of the program and the rights of children and youth worldwide, the award recognizes the Children and Youth Studies graduating senior in the academic year 2018-2019 who best exemplifies the spirit of scholarship and community outreach that the program was designed to foster. The award committee will consider candidates' academic record, their service to the university, and to their community, in relation to these values.
