

NOTICE:

Disciplinary complaints will be filed, no exceptions, for all actions which seek to subvert the fair electoral process.

Students found guilty face sanctions that may result in a notation on their individual permanent transcripts along with a range of University authorized sanctions which include suspension.

Given the long-term consequences, we encourage all students to exercise sound ethical judgment as it pertains to their election participation, as a voter or candidate.