New Faculty Workshop Series
2019-2020 Academic Year

Information Technology Orientation
Office of Information Technology Services

Learn about both the administrative and academic resources available to you and how they are supported by the college, including college and university systems/applications, e-mail, software licenses, database storage, instructional software, and any other IT questions you may have.

- Tuesday, September 3, 2019
  12:30–2 p.m.
  Gottlieb Multi-purpose Room, 411 Library

Research, Scholarship and Creative Work
Academic Affairs Panel Discussion

In this workshop we will discuss the expectations regarding research, scholarship and creative work in your new roles (both professorial titles and lecturers). We will begin to think about planning your work in terms of short-, medium-, and long-term goals, and how goals and expectations may vary from school to school.

- Tuesday, September 17, 2019
  12:30–2 p.m.
  Gottlieb Multi-purpose Room, 411 Library

Teaching and the Classroom
Roberta S. Matthews Center for Teaching and Learning

Now that you have had a little time in the classroom, you’ll have the opportunity to share your experience with your colleagues. This workshop will explore techniques and strategies to overcome challenges and improve the learning experience of your students.

- Thursday, October 3, 2019
  12:30–2 p.m.
  Gottlieb Multi-purpose Room, 411 Library
Reappointment and Tenure/CCE
Office of the Associate Provost for Faculty and Administration

With a focus on the annual reappointment process, this workshop introduces you to the policies, procedures, and criteria for reappointment and tenure/CCE. Topics include professional evaluation, the Third-year Review, and other related topics.

- Tuesday, November 5, 2019
  12:30–2 p.m.
  Library Administration Conference Room, 412-C Library

End-of-Semester Reflection
Faculty and Academic Affairs Administration

This workshop will be a venue to share and reflect on the first semester in your new role at Brooklyn College with your colleagues—both successes and frustrations. One explicit goal is to build on the positive and try to find solutions for the negative.

- Tuesday, December 3, 2019
  12:30–2 p.m.
  Library Administration Conference Room, 412-C Library

Basic Diversity, Inclusion, Title IX, and Legal Guidelines
Diversity and Equity Programs, and Legal and Labor Relations

This workshop will provide you an opportunity to understand how to recognize and handle common diversity, inclusion, and legal challenges within your classroom and around the college. This session also fulfills your requirement to complete E-SPARC CUNY sexual misconduct policy training.

- Tuesday, March 17, 2020
  12:30–2 p.m.
  Location to be determined
