

Microcredential: Designing Student-Centered Courses

ACUE's microcredential course Designing Student-Centered Courses addresses the pedagogical approaches, as well as some technical basics, to help you design a course and course materials that support student success. The microcredential features the same evidence-based pedagogy outlined in ACUE's Effective Practice Framework.

Offered in collaboration with institutional partners, these courses are an ideal way to expand the impact of institutional programs and promote effective online instruction that leads to stronger student outcomes.

Learn evidence-based practices for designing powerful learning outcomes, aligning all aspects of your course to support students in meeting those outcomes and planning a first day that ensures students are prepared to start strong.

Modules in this microcredential include:

- ▶ Establishing Powerful Learning Outcomes
- ▶ Aligning Assessments with Course Outcomes
- ▶ Aligning Activities and Assignments with Course Outcomes
- ▶ Developing Fair, Consistent, and Transparent Grading Practices
- ▶ Developing and Using Rubrics and Checklists
- ▶ Preparing an Effective Syllabus
