Join us for this exciting new workshop this spring. We will highlight some of the Magner Center’s key services and resources.

In addition to the work directly related to academics, you can play an invaluable role helping your students achieve their career goals. The job market and employer expectations have changed dramatically in recent years, and we want to show you how the Magner Career Center can be an important partner for you and a resource for your students.

- Thursday, February 13, 2020
  12:30–1:30 p.m.
  Lunch will be served!

- 1309 James Hall
  Magner Career Center

We want to be your partner supporting our students’ success!

What career tools are available at the Magner Center?

Why should students engage with the career center early?

How has hiring changed?

What are employers expecting from their entry-level candidates?

Can I identify students at risk for underemployment? Is there something I can do to help?

How can students showcase the work done in my classes as transferable skills employers are looking for?

Magner Career Center staff partners with alumni, faculty, employers and staff to make a difference in the lives of Brooklyn College students.
