

CHILDREN'S STUDIES 91: PROFESSIONAL PERSPECTIVES AND CHILDREN
SPRING 2010

GUEST SPEAKER: VICE PRESIDENT AND PUBLISHING DIRECTOR
WENDY LAMB
APRIL 21, 2010

WENDY LAMB
Vice President and Publishing Director
Wendy Lamb Books, Random House Children's Book

Wendy Lamb is Vice President and Publishing Director of Random House Children's Books' first eponymous imprint. Founded in 2002, WLB has published nearly 100 middle grade and young adult novels by such notable authors as Rebecca Stead, Patricia Reilly Giff, Gary Paulsen, Christopher Paul Curtis, Walter Dean Myers, Meg Rosoff and Graham Salisbury. Books she has edited have received scores of starred reviews and many awards, among them, two Newbery Medals, Newbery Honors, an Edgar Allan Poe Award, the Michael L. Printz Award and Honor, the Coretta Scott King Award and Honor, The Golden Kite Award and Honor, Boston Globe-Horn Book Fiction Award and Honor, the International Reading Association Award for Fiction, and the Scott O'Dell Award for Historical Fiction. She received the LMP Award for excellence in publishing for children in 2000.

She graduated from Brown University, the Radcliffe Publishing Procedures Course, and attended the Writers Workshop at the University of Iowa.