

CHILDREN'S STUDIES 4900: PROFESSIONAL PERSPECTIVES AND CHILDREN

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER SERIES
SPRING 2011

MARCH 21, 2011

GUEST SPEAKER: SARAH WALLENDJACK
President of Women in Children's Media

Sarah is President of Women in Children's Media, a NY based 501c3 dedicated to building a community among children's media leaders, creators and innovators. For her day job, Sarah is the Associate Producer of the PBS hit super hero literacy show Super Why! and is on the staff of Out of the Blue Enterprises, a children's content development, production, licensing and merchandising company. Prior to joining the Out of the Blue production team, Sarah worked at Little Airplane Productions working on season 1 of Nickelodeon's Wonder Pets! and, Disney's Go Baby! She worked on Disney's Johnny and the Sprites! and helped produce educational interstitials for the PBS pre-school block. She is a graduate of American University's Visual Media and Arts and Cultural Management programs.