Spotlights!

Do you have a story related to your time with Children's Studies that you want to be heard? We are looking for students who want to discuss something they have accomplished while a Children's Studies student or after graduating to feature on our website and in our Constant Contact e-mails. Please e-mail your story and contact information to childrensstudies@brooklyn.cuny.edu

Employment Opportunities

The Children's Studies program has been in touch with many organizations who are interested in working with our students. We have been informed of many job opportunities that, as part of our Children's Studies Road to Success Campaign, we want to keep you informed of!

Some employment opportunities include:

- Early Childhood Unit Leader and Early Childhood Day Camp Counselor at the YMCA
- Summer Teaching Fellows with Success Academy Teaching Fellowship
- Counselor at Sunnyside Community Services

For more information on these, and other, job opportunities and how to apply please contact us at 718.951.3192 or eliseg@brooklyn.cuny.edu or come into our office at 3602 James Hall to schedule an appointment and learn about different employment opportunities. Please contact us to learn more about the job descriptions, necessary qualifications, and salary.

Website Updates!

The Children's Studies program has created a comprehensive list of Children's Studies programs in other colleges and universities. We have added this list to a new page on our Children's Studies website. This information is an excellent tool for students who are interested in pursuing further education involving children and youth.

Please note the changes to the 'Career Prospects' link on our website. We have also added photos of our Faculty and Staff!

Brooklyn College Open House

On Sunday, March 28, Brooklyn College held an open house for incoming students. Many departments and programs were represented by students in their programs- including the Children's Studies program! Members of the Children First Club (CFC) and Children's Studies graduate, Cynthia Tsang, were in attendance to represent Children's Studies.

National Child Abuse Prevention Month

April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month a time to create awareness of child abuse and neglect and build strong communities to provide support to children and families. The Department of Health and Human Services released "Strengthening Families and Communities, 2011 Resource Guide," which focuses on five important factors that have been proven to protect children from the risk of abuse and neglect.

Unity Day at Brooklyn College

On May 19, The Community Planning Forum Committee is having World Unity Day at Brooklyn College on the West Quad (in the case of inclement weather the event will be held in SUBO) from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. To get more information about the event contact studentaffairs@brooklyn.cuny.edu
