20th Anniversary Celebration!

On Tuesday, December 6, 2011 the Children and Youth Studies Program, with the Children First Club, held our 20th Anniversary Celebration of the Founding of Children's Studies!

The event was held in the State Lounge of SUBO at Brooklyn College. Professor Lenzer gave opening remarks at the celebration. A video of well wishes featuring colleagues, faculty, staff and friends of the program and Professor Lenzer was presented at the celebration.

Children's Studies Center for Research, Policy and Public Service and the National Consultation- News Coverage

- The City University of New York posted two podcasts on their website featuring presentations from our National Consultation, Social Justice for Children: To End Child Abuse and Violence Against Children. The podcasts are titled, "Meeting the Challenge of Child Abuse" and "The Violent Roots of Adult Self-Loathing."
- The Kingsman, a Brooklyn College student newspaper, wrote an article about the Children's Studies Center for Research, Policy and Public Service titled, "Children's Studies Center Demands End to Violence against Children."
- The press release for our National Consultation was picked up by PR Newswire.

Children and Youth Studies Guest Speaker: Chancellor Dennis M. Walcott

The Chancellor of the New York City Department of Education, Dennis M. Walcott, was a guest speaker in one of our Children and Youth Studies courses on Tuesday, November 22, 2011.

Chancellor Walcott spoke in Assembly member William Scarborough's course, CHST 3320 Children, Public Policies, Advocacy and Legislation in New York State.
