CUNY School of Law Visit

Children and Youth Studies students have been invited to a special tour of the CUNY School of Law! Adjunct Professor Ellen Fried, currently with the CUNY School of Law, has joined with Professor Gertrude Lenzer to organize this exceptional opportunity.

On February 21, 2013 we will spend a half day at the CUNY School of Law campus touring, speaking with students and hearing from professors about the school. A light lunch will also be included.

Anyone interested in juvenile justice or child advocacy are encouraged to attend. Whether you have considered attending law school after graduation or not, this is an excellent chance to find out first hand whether law school might be an exciting career path for you.

If you would like to participate in the event please contact via email eliseg@brooklyn.cuny.edu or by calling the department at 718-951-3192.

Global Lullaby Project

Through our new initiative, the Global Lullaby Project, the Children and Youth Studies Program will create a collection of children's songs reflecting the diverse student body at Brooklyn College.

We are looking for eager volunteers to share their childhood songs and childhood experiences involving music from their ethnic and cultural background.

If you are interested in being part of this project or would like to receive more information please contact Curtly Gravesande at gravesande35@aol.com or Elise Goldberg at eliseg@brooklyn.cuny.edu. You can also contact the Children and Youth Studies office at 718-951-3192.
