Encuentro 2007

THE POSSIBLE DREAM

LATIN@ ARTS, COMMUNITIES, AND LEADERSHIP

Heriberto Ferrer, "Mi Puerto Rico"

The Possible Dream: Latin@ Arts, Communities, and Leadership is an all-day event commemorating the thirty-ninth anniversary of the Department of Puerto Rican and Latino Studies. It is also a continuation of The 2005 Latin@ Achievement Showcase followed by Encuentro 2006. The program will include panel discussions on the most pressing issues in Latin@ communities, artistic and musical presentations, culinary treats, and much more. Under the banner of "Las caras lindas: the many faces of Latin@ identity," the Encuentro will bring together students, faculty, staff, alumni, and community organizations who have contributed to the legacy of Latin@s at Brooklyn College. The day will close with the Don Quijote Awards Ceremony honoring Juan González and Calpullí Mexican Dance Company and will feature music representing our rich cultural heritage.
