A Poetry Reading

Robert Kelly

Robert Kelly, Asher B. Edelman Professor of Literature and Co-Director of the Writing Program in Fiction and Poetry at Bard College, has published more than fifty poetry titles, including Kill the Messenger Who Brings Bad News (1980), which received the Los Angeles Times First Annual Book Award, Red Actions: Selected Poems 1960-1993 (1995), Lapis (2005), and May Day (2007). Co-founder of Chelsea Review, Trobar, and editor of Matter, Kelly was co-editor with Paris Leary of the influential anthology A Controversy of Poets (1965). He has written a collection of essays and manifestoes, In Time (1972), and several volumes of short fiction. His poems and stories have been translated into Spanish, Portuguese, French, Italian, German, and Serbian. Robert Kelly has received an Award for Distinction from the National Academy and Institute of Arts and Letters and a fellowship from the National Endowment for the Arts.
