The Status of Writing in Late Republican Rome

Yelena Baraz, Assistant Professor of Classics at Princeton University, graduated summa cum laude from Brooklyn College in 1997 and received her MA in Greek and her PhD in Classics from the University of California at Berkeley in 2004. Baraz was a APA/NEH Fellow at the Thesaurus Linguae Latinae, a monumental Latin lexicography project in Munich. Her main research interests are Latin literature and Roman cultural history of the Late Republic and Early Empire. She is currently completing a book on the cultural project of Cicero's philosophical works and will next work on the topic of Roman pride.
