

BROOKLYN COLLEGE
WOMEN'S STUDIES PROGRAM
SPRING 2010 CONFERENCE

Gender and Islam Day: Local to the Global Perspectives
March 4th, 10:45 to 6:00 PM

Session I

Women, Conflict and Security in Pakistan

10:45—12:30 PM Jefferson-Williams Lounge, SUBO

Saba Khattak, Ph.D. Member Social Sector Planning Commission of Pakistan
Visiting Research Fellow, Sustainable Development Policy Institute, Islamabad

Session II

Organized by the Muslim Women's Educational Initiative, Brooklyn College Student Club

12:30—3:30 PM Jefferson-Williams Lounge, SUBO

Muslim Professional Women: Combining Faith with Profession
Documentary Film and Fun activities

Session III

The Politics of Teaching Gender and Islam in the USA.

3:30—6:00 PM Jefferson-Williams Lounge, SUBO

Shaireen Rasheed, Ph.D. Department of Curriculum and Instruction, School of Education
C. W. Post Campus of Long Island University, Brookville, New York

Linda Welles, Ph.D. Member District Committee on Diversity for the New Paltz Public Schools

Topic: Voices of Muslim Women in American Schools: Creating Spaces for Intercultural Communication

Kumru Toktamis, Ph.D. Department of Sociology, Brooklyn College

Topic: Teaching Changing Images of Muslim Women

Huma Ahmed-Ghosh, Ph.D. Endowed Chair, Women's Studies Program, Brooklyn College

Topic: Feminist Pedagogy: Politics of Gender and Islam in the USA.

Lunch will be served at Jefferson-Williams Lounge, SUBO

CO-SPONSORED WITH THE SHIRLEY CHISHOLM CENTER FOR RESEARCH ON WOMEN,
THE WOLFE INSTITUTE, OFFICE OF DIVERSITY AND EQUITY PROGRAMS
AND CUNY DIVERSITY GRANT

*For more information contact
Women's Studies Program
1207 Ingersoll Hall
(718) 951-5476
iadams@brooklyn.cuny.edu*