

In Celebration of the 10th Anniversary of the LGBTQ Studies Minor at Brooklyn College

The LGBTA presents

Transgender Lives in Nineteenth-Century New York

Jesse Bayker '10, is a proud Brooklyn College alum. He graduated in 2010 with a B.A. in History and a minor in LGBTQ Studies. This spring, he will complete his Ph.D. in History at Rutgers University in New Brunswick, NJ. His dissertation is titled "Before Transsexuality: Transgender Lives and Practices in Nineteenth-century America." He completed the Andrew W. Mellon Predoctoral Fellowship at the Museum of the City of New York in 2018. He currently serves as the Digital Archive Developer for the Scarlet and Black Project—a public history project exploring Rutgers University's entanglements with slavery. His research has been supported by the Mellon Foundation, the Schlesinger Library at Harvard University, and the American Historical Association.

Please join us after the talk for a reception celebrating the 10th anniversary of the minor in LGBTQ Studies from 3:30-4:30 p.m.

Tuesday, March 12, 2019
2:15 to 3:30 p.m.
Gold Room, Sixth floor
Brooklyn College Student Center
Campus Road and East 27th Street

co-sponsored by the Women's and Gender Studies Program and the LGBTQ Resource Center, additional support provided by the Ethyle R. Wolfe Institute for the Humanities and the Women's Center

