Child Holocaust Survivors: Jewish Families after the Holocaust

A lecture by distinguished scholar and author Prof. Joanna Michlic of Leo Baeck College in London, England. This lecture will address questions of how child survivors of physical and emotional trauma and loss responded to the challenges of postwar recovery and living.

Joanna Beata Michlic is a social and cultural historian, and founder of HBI (Hadassah-Brandeis Institute) Project on Families, Children, and the Holocaust at Brandeis University. She is an Honorary Senior Research Associate at the UCL Centre for the Study of Collective Violence, the Holocaust and Genocide, UCL Institute for Advances Studies, and an Honorary Senior Associate at the School of Slavonic and East European Studies (SSEES) in London. Her research focuses on social and cultural history of Poland and East European Jews, the Holocaust and its memory in Europe, and antisemitism and nationalism in Eastern Europe. She is a prolific author on Polish-Jewish history and relations, and has held numerous distinguished Fellowships. She is a recipient of many academic awards and fellowships, most recently she is the recipient of the Gerda Henkel Fellowship, 2017-2019.
