

The LGBTQ Resource Center at Brooklyn College and the LGBTA present

NATIONAL COMING OUT DAY

Thursday, October 10th, 2019

Celebrate National Coming Out Day with us!
We've planned a whole day of events for LGBTQIA+ and allied students, staff, faculty, and BC community to connect, share, and celebrate!

11:00am - 12:15pm

Penthouse, Student Center

Celebrate National Coming Out Day and Hispanic Heritage Month with a performance by queer, Latinx poet, River Mason. Breakfast will be served.

Co-sponsored by the Women's and Gender Studies Program, the Ethyl R. Wolfe Institute for the Humanities, the Department of Modern Languages and Literature, Puerto Rican and Latino Studies, Peer Health Exchange, and Stuck in the Library.

RSVP ENCOURAGED!

12:30pm - 2:00pm

Penthouse, Student Center

Come Out & Celebrate! Join us for the 7th annual "Come Out & Celebrate" mixer where folks are invited to share their coming out experiences. Lunch will be served!

RSVP ENCOURAGED!

12:30pm - 2:00pm

Maroon Room, Student Center (6th Fl)

Visit our Resource Fair of various on-campus and off-campus organizations. No RSVP required.

2:00pm - 3:00pm

Penthouse, Student Center

A representative from the Personal Counseling Center will facilitate a group discussion surrounding themes of coming out. No RSVP required.

3:00pm - 6:00pm

219 Student Center

Hang out and keep the celebration going at the LGBTQ Resource Center! No RSVP required.

6:30pm - 9:30pm

Penthouse, Student Center

Join us for the 2nd annual "Living History" Dinner, where LGBTQIA+ students & faculty share their stories in a series of one-on-one discussion. Dinner will be served.

Co-sponsored by Student Diversity Initiatives, SAIL Center.

RSVP ENCOURAGED!

To RSVP, or with any questions, email LGBTQCenter@brooklyn.cuny.edu

All events will take place in the BC Student Center and are open to all BC students, staff & faculty.

Valid ID is required for entry to the Student Center.

