

WE STAND AGAINST HATE

Enhancing Understanding and Compassion at Brooklyn College

We are pleased to announce the return of the We Stand Against Hate initiative for the fall 2017 semester. These events reflect our ongoing commitment to increasing dialogue, elevating understanding, and celebrating the many voices that make up our campus community.

More info at brooklyn.cuny.edu/bcfamily

#BCfamily

"STRATEGIES TO COMBAT RACISM AND ANTI-SEMITISM: THE PSYCHODYNAMICS OF AMERICAN POLITICS" WITH RABBI MICHAEL LERNER

Rabbi Michael Lerner is a psychotherapist, American political activist, editor of Tikkun, a progressive Jewish and interfaith magazine, the rabbi of Beyt Tikkun synagogue in Berkeley, California, and the author of the books The Left Hand of God: Taking Back America from the Religious Right, and Jews and Blacks: Let the Healing Begin (coauthored with Cornel West). Lerner will discuss the psychopathology in American life that creates the climate in which racism against African Americans and anti-Semitism grow, and will present strategies to take the country in a different direction. Dinner reception for guests in attendance will immediately follow in the Student Center Penthouse.

OCTOBER 19

3:40–5 P.M.

GOLD ROOM

STUDENT CENTER

Brooklyn College