Members of the CUNY community will receive a 25% discount on all athletic gear with campus or institutional logos at the campus bookstores. Faculty, staff, and students are encouraged to wear the CUNY gear when they vote during the upcoming election, so as to put pressure on local officials and to remind them that our votes, and especially those of our students, matter. She asked that Faculty Council members encourage students to wear Brooklyn College gear when they vote.
- President Gould announced that there are opportunities for students to participate as poll workers during the upcoming election.
- President Gould thanked the Brooklyn College community for its involvement in the searches for deans. She stressed the importance of diversity on the search committees.

Vice President for Student Affairs Morales received nominations and self-nominations for the student members of the committees. She declared that efforts were made to put an undergraduate and graduate member on each committee. She asked that student nominations continue, as the schedule for the search committee is not yet finalized. Students who may have agreed to serve initially may not be able to serve when the schedule is finalized, so alternates may be necessary.

President Gould announced the beginning of the larger Strategic Planning Working Committee. The first meeting will take place on Thursday, October 9, 2010 from 12:15 to 2:15 pm. Over one hundred individuals are serving. She encouraged participants to arrive on time, so that the meeting can get underway promptly. Members of the working committee should expect an e-mail from President Gould on Wednesday, October 13. The e-mail will contain a number of drafts of material.

Bonnie Impagliazzo, Director of Government and External Affairs and CUNY Campaign Coordinator, announced the CUNY Campaign to raise funds for over 1200 charities. Last year, CUNY raised $600,000. A memo will be sent to the members about this issue. It states that any material on a CUNY or personal computer on which college business may have been conducted may be tapped if it is relevant to a lawsuit. Third, Professor Jacobson reported that the year's budget allocation will be very bad. Fourth, she discussed the resolution regarding federal support for for-profit colleges. Supporting material warns of the dangers of for-profit colleges. The UFS would like CUNY campuses to endorse the resolution. The following resolution was presented to Faculty Council: Be it resolved that the Brooklyn College Faculty Council endorse the UFS resolution with regard to federal support for for-profit colleges and universities. The resolution was approved unanimously.

The Faculty Council Committee on College Integrity met to consider the recent publicity that the college received for its choice of a common freshman reading experience (How Does It feel to Be a Problem?: Being Young and Arab in America by Moustafa Bayoumi) . This publicity included items in various newspapers, web pages, parts of television broadcasts and some responses by donors to the college. The committee discussed the matter and deemed that the college's response was sufficient. The committee, therefore, makes no resolution to Faculty Council at this time.

Committee on Undergraduate Curriculum & Degree Requirements: Professor Tenenbaum (CIS) reminded members of Faculty Council that any curriculum documents needing approval for this semester should be sent to him by the November 16 deadline. In addition, he drew attention to the format for the curriculum documents. He presented Curriculum Document 340 with the following corrections. Page 26 should be removed. On page 11, extra word "lecture" should be removed. On page 4, the underlined material should read, "With permission of the Chairperson of the Department of Computer and Information Science, students may substitute either Mathematics 1206 or Mathematics 2501 for either Mathematics 1711 or Mathematics 1716. Professor Langsam (CIS) explained that necessity of this change. He stated that department chairs should have the discretion to allow course substitutions in light of the fact that the Committee on Course & Standing is denying petitions for substitutions in an effort to force departments to adhere to the letter of the bulletin and to force the administration to offer more courses. Professor Snow presented a resolution to leave page 4 as written. It was defeated with 18 yeas, 57 nays, and 8 abstentions. The document was approved with 71 yeas, 5 nays, and 1 abstention.
