

Call for Proposals

23rd Annual Faculty Day Conference Brooklyn College • Thursday, May 16, 2019 www.brooklyn.cuny.edu/facultyday

We invite you to participate in an exchange of ideas — a day filled with thought-provoking, absorbing, and sometimes controversial topics. The faculty presentations and contributions at the conference are what make it such a wonderful experience each year.

Given the wide variety of academic backgrounds at the college, we strongly encourage proposals considered from an interdisciplinary perspective and contributions from a range of viewpoints. All faculty (full-time and part-time) and professional staff are invited to submit proposals for the conference.

We welcome presentations in all disciplines and covering any topic. This year the committee is particularly interested in receiving proposals on the following:

Climate Change, Pedagogy and Technology, Social Justice Movements, Politics and Public Education, Mental Health and Trauma, Business and the Public Good, Teaching Controversial
Topics, Big Data, Interdisciplinarity and Intersectionality,
Freedom of Speech, Intellectual Diversity

Proposals should be submitted by Sunday, December 9, 2018 using the online form on the Faculty Day website.

Please e-mail any questions to Myra Kogen at mkogen@brooklyn.cuny.edu.

Learn
Discuss
Meet
Enjoy
The 23rd Annual
Faculty Day
Conference

Types of presentations or activities commonly proposed

Panel Discussion. A presentation of multiple perspectives on a major topic that will be of wide general interest. This is an opportunity to share your ideas, interests and creative work or talent with your colleagues across the college. Typically, each 75-minute panel involves three presenters and a moderator, often from different disciplines.

Individual Proposal. We also welcome individual proposals. An individual presentation may be combined with other relevant topics in a panel format. We would be happy to help connect you with like-minded colleagues.

Workshop/Short Session. This is an opportunity for active participation and learning that can include discussion, performance, group work, role playing, debate, etc. Materials may be made available ahead of time to facilitate discussion. These are typically 30-minute timeslots..

Luncheon Roundtable. Moderator(s) lead an informal discussion on a topic of common interest at a 10-person table during lunch. Discussion is open to all participants who wish to join.

Poster Session. On a poster board, the authors present research findings or describe an ongoing program or investigation. Help with formatting and printing is available.

Art Gallery. Plan to show your photos, paintings, sculpture and crafts at the poster session.

Works in progress or those previously presented at disciplinary conferences are welcome.

Please visit www.brooklyn.cuny.edu/facultyday to learn more about the conference. If you're ready to submit your proposal, follow this link directly to the online form.

What do you enjoy about Faculty Day?

