

Award for Excellence in Teaching for a Full-time Faculty Member

The award in the amount of $5,000 will be presented annually to a full-time faculty member for his or her demonstrated excellence in teaching at Brooklyn College.

Nominating Process

If you know a full-time faculty member who has proven to be an outstanding teacher, has a particular ability to communicate a body of knowledge, shows great respect for students, and is dedicated to encouraging and cultivating a love of learning, we invite you to send a letter of nomination detailing why you believe this individual deserves to receive this award.

Nominations may come from any member of the faculty, including candidates themselves. Letters of nomination should be sent to the Office of the Associate Provost for Faculty and Administration, 3227 Boylan Hall, by Monday, February 29, 2016.

Supporting Materials and Teaching Observation

Each nominee must submit the following:

- i. Current curriculum vitae;
- ii. Statement of teaching philosophy;
- iii. Portfolio that includes sample syllabi and course assignments; evidence of curriculum development and of other creative activity related to pedagogy, such as research in the scholarship of teaching and learning (SOTL), participation in seminars and conferences on enhancing teaching effectiveness;
- iv. Recent Brooklyn College departmental teaching observation;
- v. Brooklyn College student evaluations.

The submission of evaluations/letters of support from students, alumni and faculty attesting to the quality of one's teaching is encouraged.

Classroom observations of the highest ranking candidates will be conducted by members of the selection committee.

All materials should be submitted to the Office of the Associate Provost for Faculty and Administration, 3227 Boylan Hall, by Monday, March 14, 2016.

Eligibility

To be eligible for this award, the nominee must be a full-time faculty member at Brooklyn College during the 2015-2016 academic year. Previous recipients are not eligible.

Selection Process

A committee composed of five members of the faculty, including past recipients of this and other teaching awards/honors, appointed by the Provost, will select the recipient of the award. No member of the selection committee is eligible for the award.
