Supporting Materials

Each nominee must (at minimum) submit the following:

- i. Current curriculum vitae;
- ii. Statement describing recent scholarly accomplishments, making clear why these accomplishments are exceptional enough to merit this recognition;
- iii. Evidence of the significance of the work and/or impact on the field, in the form of letters of recommendation by peers and published reviews.

Nominees are encouraged to provide the selection committee examples of your research/scholarly work. In addition to traditional printed materials, web-based materials or other standard media showcasing your work can be shared. However, clear instructions regarding how to access/view these resources must be noted in the primary supporting documentation.

The award will be based on accomplishments such as publications in prestigious presses or journals, performances or exhibitions in venues of excellence, and/or other evidence of national or international recognition.

All materials must be submitted to the Office of the Associate Provost for Faculty and Administration, 3227 Boylan Hall, by Friday, March 1, 2019 (5:00 pm).

E-mailed materials will not be accepted.
