Award for Excellence in Teaching for a Full-time Faculty Member

Nominations

If you know a full-time faculty member who has proved to be an outstanding teacher, has a particular ability to communicate a body of knowledge, shows great respect for students, and is dedicated to encouraging and cultivating a love of learning, we invite you to send a letter of nomination detailing why you believe this individual deserves to receive this award.

The award in the amount of $5,000 will be presented annually to a full-time faculty member who has demonstrated excellence in teaching at Brooklyn College.

Nominations may come from any member of the faculty, including candidates themselves. Letters of nomination (hardcopy only) should be sent to the Office of the Associate Provost for Faculty and Administration, 3227 Boylan Hall, by Monday, February 4, 2019 (5:00 pm).

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact the Office of the Associate Provost for Faculty and Administration at apfa@brooklyn.cuny.edu or (718) 951-5024.
Supporting Materials and Teaching Observation

Each nominee must submit the following:

i. Current curriculum vitae;
ii. Statement of teaching philosophy;
iii. Portfolio that includes sample syllabi and course assignments; evidence of curriculum development and/or other creative activity related to pedagogy, such as research in the scholarship of teaching and learning (SOTL), participation in seminars and conferences on enhancing teaching effectiveness;
iv. Spring semester teaching schedule (to facilitate scheduling of classroom observations);
v. Recent Brooklyn College departmental teaching observation;
vi. The submission of evaluations/letters of support from students, alumni and faculty attesting to the quality of one’s teaching is encouraged.

Classroom observations of the highest ranking candidates will be conducted by members of the selection committee. Student evaluations for the previous 6 semesters will be provided by the Office of the Associate Provost.

In recognition of the pedagogical use of technology, applications may be supplemented by web-based materials or other standard media. However, clear instructions regarding how to access/view these resources must be included in the primary supporting documentation.

All materials must be submitted to the Office of the Associate Provost for Faculty and Administration, 3227 Boylan Hall, by Friday, March 1, 2019 (5:00 pm).

E-mailed materials will not be accepted.

Eligibility

To be eligible for this award, the nominee must be a full-time faculty member at Brooklyn College during the 2018-2019 academic year. Previous recipients of this award are not eligible.

Selection Process

A committee composed of at least five members of the faculty, including those who have themselves been recognized for excellence in teaching, appointed by the Provost or designee, will select the recipient of the award. No member of the selection committee is eligible for the award.

The award will be presented during the awards ceremony at the conclusion of the 23rd Annual Faculty Day Conference on Thursday, May 16, 2019.
