

Award for Excellence in Research

Do you know a faculty member with a record of excellence in research and scholarship?

Nominate them! This award ($5,000) will be presented to a faculty member (or “team”) who has demonstrated excellence in research. Nominees must be full-time faculty members at Brooklyn College during the 2020-2021 academic year. Previous recipients are not eligible.

Nominations are due by Friday, February 19, 2021. It is easy to nominate. Faculty and academic administrators can submit names using the Online Nomination Form. The Office of the Associate Provost for Faculty and Administration will contact nominees and ask them to provide supporting materials by March 17. Nominators will be asked to write letters of recommendation by March 17. Self-nominations are welcome.

By March 17, 2021, nominees must submit the following supporting materials to the Office of the Associate Provost electronically via the Dropbox file request specific to this award:

1. curriculum vitae
2. statement describing recent scholarly accomplishments
3. examples of research
4. evidence of the significance of the work, which can include published reviews and up to three letters from peers
5. a paragraph explaining how the nominee would share their expertise in research and scholarship with colleagues during the 2021-2022 academic year

E-mailed materials will not be accepted; use the Dropbox link. Applications can include links to web-based material along with instructions for how to view them.

The associate provost will appoint the selection committee of at least three faculty members, including those who have been recognized for excellence in research and scholarship.

The award will be presented as part of the 2021 Faculty Day Virtual Conference in May. Visit brooklyn.cuny.edu/facultyday for more information.
