

CUNY-BC Study in China

Summer 2013 Itinerary

May 30 – June 26

1. Report to Airports on May 30, 2013 and depart NY for Beijing
2. Arrive Beijing Capital Int'l Airport, May 31 (on the way to China, we lose 12 hours due to time difference)
 - a. Immigration clearance and claim bags
 - b. Transfer to hotel by local travel agency
3. Charter buses and tour guides from the travel agency in Beijing pick up at Beijing Int'l Airport
4. Tour Beijing June 1-2
 - a. The Great Wall;
 - b. Summer Palace
 - c. Tiananmen Square
 - d. Palace Museum & Forbidden City
 - e. Venues of Olympic Games 2008
 - f. Cloisonné (enamel making)
 - g. Traditional Chinese Medicine Center (Theory of Chinese Health Care)
5. Arrive Xi'an June 3; Tour Xi'an June 3-4
 - a. Terra Cotta Soldiers and Horses Museum
 - b. XuanZang Buddhist Master Statue
 - c. Wild Good Pagoda Square
 - d. Ancient Silk Road Sites
 - e. Muslim Quarter, Ancient City Wall, Chinese Art Galleries
6. Arrive Nanjing on early morning of June 5
 - a. Classes and tours in Nanjing from June 5 to 23 in Nanjing
 - b. Visits to business, universities and colleges in Nanjing
 - c. Confucius Temple
 - d. Jiming Buddhist Temple
 - e. Nanjing Massacre Museum
 - f. Nanjing Museum, Jiangsu Province Art Exhibition Hall
 - g. Side trips for some students to Yangzhou, Hong Kong/Guilin and Huangshan
 - h. Yangzhou Museum (with rich collection of Chinese art), China Block Printing Museum, Marco Polo Museum (with a side trip to Yangzhou)
7. Leave Nanjing for Suzhou and Shanghai June 24
8. Sightseeing in Suzhou
 - a. Suzhou Gardens
 - b. Suzhou #1 Silk Mill
9. Arrive Shanghai late afternoon of June 24
 - a. Sightseeing in Shanghai January 24-25
 - b. The Bund (Waitan)
 - c. Shanghai Pudong Financial District
 - d. Shanghai Museum
 - e. The French Concession
 - f. Old and New Shanghai
10. Depart Shanghai for U.S., June 26, 2013, arriving NY the same day
(on the way back to the States, we gain back 12 hours)