

How do I prepare for law school as an undergraduate?
How can I create a career in civil rights?
How does the study of history influence the law today?

*The Brooklyn College Departments of History, Philosophy, and Political Science,
The Pre-Law Club, and The Magner Center present*

Civil Rights *as a Passion & a Career

~

Monday, April 27, 2015
4:30-6:00pm, SUBO, Jefferson Williams Room
Afternoon drinks and snacks will be provided

~

A presentation by civil rights lawyer Ryan Downer, an associate at a renowned civil rights law firm in Washington D.C., who worked as assistant counsel for the Economic Justice Project at the NAACP and clerked for the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit.

He will talk about the practice of civil rights law today; the way that the study of the history of civil rights informs that practice; and the steps students can take to pursue careers in law or civil rights.