Core Curriculum 3202: Classical Philosophies of India and China

Tuesday & Thursday 2:15-3:30PM

3405 Boylan Hall

OVERVIEW:

Exploring what it means to be human is fundamental to most Eastern philosophies but humanity is understood by way of man's relationship to one's society, the universe, and divinity. This course will focus on the analysis of several major schools of thought that dominated early Eastern societies by examining the world view these traditions presented and what way of life they prescribed to their followers.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. Develop skills of conceptual analysis and argumentation, including critical thinking skills of examining, comparing, and assessing cultures;
2. Develop a basis for evaluating classical philosophical texts of Indian and Chinese cultures;
3. Develop a basic understanding of ethical theories of Indian and Chinese cultures, and of the values that have shaped these theories;
4. Demonstrate an ability to express ideas clearly both in written form and orally.

GRADE BREAKDOWN:

10% - PARTICIPATION
25% - TERM PAPER
25% - GROUP PROJECT
40% - FINAL EXAM

Extra credit: up to 5% can be earned by leading or participating in online discussions on the Blackboard course website.

REQUIRED TEXT: The required reading materials are compiled into a course packet available for purchase at Far Better Copy (Campus Rd. & Hilel Pl.) available after 9/1/12.

COURSE POLICIES:

ABSENCES: Attendance is mandatory. You are allowed up to three unexcused absences. Any other unexcused absences will adversely affect your grade.

LATENESS: Anyone arriving after 2:30PM will receive ½ of an absence.

OFFICE HOURS: All meetings except in rare circumstances must be by appointment in 3316B.

EMAILING PROCEDURES: you are always welcome to email me with any course-related questions. However, you MUST adhere to the following rules:

1. The SUBJECT must contain the title of the course and section (CORC3202) and your FULL NAME;

2. Do NOT send any attachments (i.e. assignments, essays, etc.) as I will not open them unless I specifically request them from you;
3. You must state your FULL NAME in your email.

If you do not stick to these rules, chances are your message might remain unanswered.

CELL PHONES & PDAS: all cell phones, pagers, PDAs, etc. must be turned off at the beginning of class and put away. Any ringing, clicking, or vibrating cell phone will result in the user's exclusion from class activities and an automatic absence. No text-messaging, picture-taking, or any other behavior unrelated to class activities will be tolerated. This policy WILL BE strictly enforced.

University's policy on Academic Integrity:

The faculty and administration of Brooklyn College support an environment free from cheating and plagiarism. Each student is responsible for being aware of what constitutes cheating and plagiarism and for avoiding both. The complete text of the CUNY Academic Integrity Policy and the Brooklyn College procedure for implementing that policy can be found at this site: <http://www.brooklyn.cuny.edu/bc/policies>. If a faculty member suspects a violation of academic integrity and, upon investigation, confirms that violation, or if the student admits the violation, the faculty member MUST report the violation.

Students with Disabilities:

In order to receive disability-related academic accommodations students must first be registered with the Center for Student Disability Services. Students who have a documented disability or suspect they may have a disability are invited to set up an appointment with the Director of the Center for Student Disability Services, Ms. Valerie Stewart-Lovell at 718-951-5538. If you have already registered with the Center for Student Disability Services please provide your professor with the course accommodation form and discuss your specific accommodation with him/her.
