

WINTER BREAK CAREERS CONFERENCE FOR LIBERAL ARTS STUDENTS

THURSDAY, JANUARY 15TH, 2015
10:00 AM - 4:00 PM
JEFFERSON - WILLIAMS LOUNGE, STUDENT CENTER

PARTICIPANTS WILL:

- Meet employers from a variety of industries as they discuss your career options and what they're seeking in new hires.
- Expand networks with alumni professionals in diverse fields and learn how to leverage these relationships.
- Participate in an interactive and resume-building training on transferable skills for the job market.
- Increase awareness of exciting and doable career paths for liberal arts students.
- Better understand terminology, job functions, and skill sets valued by employers in various industries.
- Learn how to become competitive for opportunities after graduation.

CAREERS CONFERENCE: AN INSIDE LOOK AT THE CAREER OPTIONS FOR LIBERAL ARTS STUDENTS

REGISTRATION: <http://tinyurl.com/BCCBootCamp-January2015>

Space is limited to 50 students! This program is for liberal arts students only.
(This includes any degree in the School of Humanities and Social Sciences;
Art History, Anthropology and Psychology majors are also welcome.)

If you have any questions about eligibility or other aspects of the program, please email Michael Sarrao at Msarrao@brooklyn.cuny.edu.