

Thursday, March 5th 5:30-7:30
Pratt Institute in ENGINEERING 307

Artist Discussion

FEATURING:

Leon Reid IV,
ELBOW-TOE,
HOTTEA,
& Tatyana Fazlalizadeh

Friday, March 6th 5:30-7
Pratt Institute in FILM AND VIDEO 102

Keynote Lecture

FEATURING:

Alison Young
"Mainstreaming the Street:
The Cultural Value of Illicit
Street Art"

The conference is made possible by generous donations from:

March 5th, 6th, 7th
PRATT INSTITUTE & NYU

Department of Social Science and Cultural Studies

This conference is free
and open to the public.
No registration required.

PHILOSOPHY OF STREET ART

Art in & of the Street

Friday, March 6th

Pratt Institute in FILM AND VIDEO 102

"Political Art and Street Art Definitions"
Christiane Merritt (Washington University, St. Louis)

"Street Art & Deception"
Shelby Moser (University of Kent)

"The Lego Minifigure in Urban Art"
Roy T. Cook (University of Minnesota)

"On The Illegality Condition in Street Art"
Tony Chackal (University of Georgia)
*Winner Graduate Student Travel Prize

Saturday, March 7th

New York University at 5 Washington Place

"Signature Counterexamples to the Institutional Theory of Art"
Christopher Nagel (University of Minnesota)

"Saving the Writing on the Wall: Two Models for Street Art and its Preservation"
Alison Lanier, Angela Sun, & Erich Hatala Matthes
(Wellesley College)

"A Softer, Gentler Street Art:
Two Incongruities of Yarn-bombing"
Mary Beth Willard (Weber State)

"Domesticating the Streets: Feminist Street Art"
Sondra Bacharach (Victoria University)

Thursday, March 5th 5:30-7:30

Pratt Institute in ENGINEERING 307

Artist Discussion

FEATURING:

Leon Reid IV,
ELBOW-TOE,
HOTTEA,
& Tatyana Fazlalizadeh

Friday, March 6th 5:30-7

Pratt Institute in FILM AND VIDEO 102

Keynote Lecture

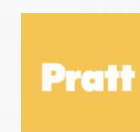

FEATURING:

Alison Young
"Mainstreaming the Street:
The Cultural Value of Illicit
Street Art"

The conference is made possible by generous donations from:

March 5th, 6th, 7th

PRATT INSTITUTE & NYU

Department of Social Science and Cultural Studies

This conference is free
and open to the public.
No registration required.

PHILOSOPHY OF STREET ART

Art in & of the Street