

THE PHILOSOPHY DEPARTMENT PRESENTS

SOCIAL HOUR

In this social hour, Professor Lindauer will argue that moral and political philosophers are committed to the “fruitfulness” of normative concepts—roughly how well they help us to solve certain practical problems—mattering for the evaluation of these concepts. He will then examine what this means for the role of experimental philosophy in moral and political philosophy, and why philosophers, in particular, should be involved in conducting some of this empirical research.

On Thursday, November 7th, 2019
From 12:30 – 2:00 PM
3308 Boylan Hall
With Professor Matthew Lindauer

Experimental Philosophy and the Fruitfulness of Normative Concepts

Come to Social Hour to ask questions and discuss philosophical issues in a relaxed environment.

Snacks and drinks will be provided!
