An introduction to modern sentential and predicate logic.

Among the topics are validity, consistency and proof, formal analysis of sentences and arguments in natural language.