

The LGBTQ Minor Inaugural Lecture Series

The Women's Studies Program
Shirley Chisholm Center for Research on Women
The BC LGBTA

present

Sarah Schulman

UNITED IN ANGER

The ACT UP Oral History Project

A History of How ACT-UP Changed the Face of AIDS in America

Tuesday, March 10, 2009

11:00 to 12:30 pm

Jefferson -Williams Lounge, Brooklyn College Student Center
Campus Road and East 27th Street

Sarah Schulman is a Professor of English at College of Staten Island of CUNY and a Fellow at The New York Institute for the Humanities at NYU. She is the author of nine novels and numerous plays. Her awards include a Guggenheim (Playwrighting), Fullbright (Judaic Studies), Revson Fellow for the Future of New York City, two American Library Association Book Awards (Fiction and Nonfiction), Stonewall Award for Contributions Improving the Lives of Lesbians and Gays in the US.