

Instructions for Filing an Application

You must answer all questions and submit all required documents for this application to be considered complete.

Documents Needed:

College Transcripts

You must submit official or student copies of your undergraduate transcripts from all school(s) attended. The Office of Admissions at Brooklyn College has access to transcripts for coursework taken at CUNY Colleges; in most cases, therefore, you just have to list the CUNY College on the application with dates of attendance.

Students with international documents in a language other than English must submit a translation performed by their country's consulate or a recognized translation agency. International transcripts must be evaluated by credential accreditation services such as World Education Services (WES) and Education Credential Evaluators (ECE).

Personal Statements

You need to submit 2 personal statements:

1. A one-page statement explaining the area of under-representation or diversity you are interested in giving voice to, and
2. A brief statement of the media you would like to produce and engage with around social/cultural diversity.

Instructions for Submitting Application and Documents

Download, complete, scan and email the DAMAS Application along with your personal statements and transcript(s) to Prof. Katherine Fry KatFry@brooklyn.cuny.edu or Prof. Alexandra Juhasz Alexandra.Juhasz@brooklyn.cuny.edu

For Students Applying From Other CUNY Colleges

Students who intend to transfer these courses back to their home college must file a CUNY e- permit after you have been admitted to the program.

For Students Applying From Non CUNY Colleges

Students who intend to transfer these courses back to their home college must submit; in addition to this application, a letter on your College's letterhead stating that you are in good standing and have permission to take these courses.
