THE CORNEL WEST CONCERTO

Drawing from the rich trove of traditional African American jazz, blues, and the chanted sermon, this revolutionary work was inspired by the current spirit of political unrest and resistance. Join us for the Brooklyn premiere of Conservatory of Music Professor Arturo O'Farrill's tribute to one of the most provocative critics and social activists of our time. Featuring special guest orator Dr. Cornel West with the Brooklyn College Big Band and Conservatory Singers. Arturo O'Farrill, director, and Malcolm J. Merriweather, conductor.
