

CLEP POLICY

Approved CLEP Exams as Per the Academic Departments:

- American History - Part 1 = HIST. 3401 (score in 50th percentile)
- American History - Part 2 = HIST. 3402 (score in 50th percentile)
- Principles of Marketing = BUSN. 3100 (score in 55th percentile)

No credit will be granted for any general examinations, Freshman English, Natural Science, Foreign Language, or Mathematics.

Before taking CLEP, students should consult the specific department to determine whether credit will be granted and the score you must receive.

Note:

- *Students cannot take CLEP toward their residence requirement which includes:
 - a. Completion of at least 30 credits at Brooklyn College
 - b. The last 18 credits taken toward the degree
- In general, students must receive a score in the 50th percentile for credit to be considered by an academic department (if it has not already been stated that the department will not accept the exam – see above). However, some departments may require a higher score.

*See Brooklyn College's Undergraduate Bulletin under "Residence Requirement"
