

MAPPING WRITING ACROSS THE CORE CURRICULUM

Initial Position: February 2014;

This Map shows how each of the courses in the core curriculum contributes to students' mastery of WRITING skills. Each cell contains the artifacts that are evaluated for a course grade. Artifacts could include any type of written work, included for course grading.

|  |  | Written Communication   |
|--|--|-------------------------|
| PHIL 3314  | Moral Issues in Business               | Case Study              |
| ECON 2100  | Macroeconomics                         | Case Study              |
| ECON 2200  | Microeconomics                         |                         |
| BUSN 3400  | Intro Business and Economic Statistics |                         |
| ACCT 2001  | Introductory ACCT                      | Written Problem Answers |
| ACCT 3201  | Business Law 1                         |                         |
| BUSN 3100  | Marketing                              | Case Study       |
| BUSN 3200  | Management                             |                         |
| BUSN 3310  | Corp Financial Management              |                         |
| BUSN 3430  | Operations Management                  | ---                     |
| BUSN 4501W, BUSN 4100W, 4010W, 4200W, 4202W, 4300W, ECON 4400W | Capstone in each discipline            | Multiple Case Studies   |

**PHIL 3314 Reinforces prior learning that occurred in Pathways courses*