Description

The Brooklyn College Bulldogs United Student Retreat is a three and a half day program providing students from various backgrounds the opportunity to engage in experiential learning in a fun, unique and diverse setting.

Goals of the Retreat:

Each student participant will gain greater:

- Self-knowledge: understanding of one's talents, values, interests, especially as these relate to the student's capacity to provide effective leadership.
- Leadership competence: the capacity to mobilize oneself and others to serve and to work collaboratively.
- Civic mindedness: to facilitate positive social change at the institution or in the community.

Included in the Retreat:

- Transportation (to and from Brooklyn College)
- All meals (dietary restrictions will be accommodated as best as possible)
- Lodging (3 nights at Retreat's location)
- Social activities

Eligibility Criteria:

- Currently registered for classes.
- No student-conduct violations.
- Demonstrated school spirit and interest in leadership, community building and intergroup collaboration required.
- Must be available from January 8 – 11, 2019.
