WHAT DO I DO?

SUBMIT A REPORT

CAMPUS RESPONSE ACTIVATED

Once a report is received, a Judicial Affairs representative reviews it to determine next steps and conducts an investigation if necessary. For reports alleging sexual misconduct/Title IX, the Title IX Coordinator will follow-up on the complaint.

CONFIDENTIAL OPTIONS

Here are confidential options if you have been a victim of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment, or sexual violence (which may include stalking, dating, domestic and intimate partner violence, or sexual assault):
- Personal Counseling Center
  718-951-5363, bcpersonalcounseling@gmail.com
- Health Clinic
  718-951-5580, bchealthclinic@gmail.com
- Women’s Center
  718-951-5777, womenscenter@brooklyn.cuny.edu

A Judicial Affairs representative will meet with the accused student or respondent to get their perspective on the reported behavior. The goal is to address any misconduct, and provide both parties with support and guidance. Once the case is closed, both parties will be notified.
