Loan Proration for Graduating Borrowers

Per Federal regulation, Brooklyn College is required to prorate an undergraduate student's annual loan limit when they are enrolled for one semester and will graduate in the same academic year.

Loan Proration Formula:

Note: If you complete the loan application incorrectly and fail to inform our office of your graduation prior to the disbursement of your loans, your loans may be adjusted after we confirm graduation, which can result in a reduction of your loan and a liability with the college.

VIEW YOUR LOAN AS "PENDING AID"

After your loan has been processed, utilize the "Account Inquiry" link to view your "pending aid". Pending means that you have been awarded the aid, and it is being used as a credit towards your tuition balance. Keep in mind that if you are relying on your loan to meet the semester's tuition deadline, you must ensure that your pending financial aid meets or exceeds your tuition balance.

VIEW YOUR AWARD SUMMARY

Utilize the "View Financial Aid" link under "Finances" of your Student Center to view your total 2017-2018 financial aid award package and scheduled disbursement dates for each award.

The online Direct Loan Processing Form on CUNYfirst only allows students to submit the application once per academic year. If you made an error on your loan request, or would like to make adjustments, contact your Financial Aid Advisor for further instruction.
