PLACEMENT PROCEDURES

- Students will need to upload the Fact Sheet and Placement forms
- Student will receive an email that the forms were received
- FWS staff will review the uploaded forms to confirm they were properly completed
- Upon confirmation that all forms have been accurately submitted, students will be notified to log into JobX and begin applying for a position
- If follow-up is required, this will include an email indicating further action they will need to take prior to being able to apply for a position
PLACEMENT PROCEDURES

1. Once you have received the email to begin your job search, follow these steps. Go to the Federal Work-Study Resource Page (bcfws.studentemployment.ngwebsolutions.com). Click on “Applicants and Employees” and click on the “Find a Job” link.
   - Select either the “Quick Search” or “Advanced Search” tab to view the available jobs.
   - Click on the “Job Title” for the job that you are interested in to view the “Job Details”.
   - Methodically review available FWS job listings

2. Select positions that interest you – be sure you are able to meet the qualifications and perform the job duties listed

3. Supervisors should contact you on the status of your application. If you do not receive an email response after one week, send a follow up email to the supervisor.

4. Arrange for an interview

   - When applying for jobs, attach a copy of your current resume for supervisors to review.
   - Do not apply for more than five jobs at a time. You can only work at one site at any given time. Once you accept a position and have completed the placement process, you are expected to remain at that job site until your FWS offer is earned (provided you continue to meet program guidelines).
   - During interview, discuss a work schedule that will not conflict with your class schedule (as per your CUNYfirst registration). Email a copy of your official class schedule to the supervisor.
INTERVIEWING TIPS

- Be on time for established interview
- Have a copy of your current resume and official class schedule (as appears on CUNYfirst) to share with supervisor
- Know what times you are available to work
- Dress appropriately for the interview
- Have a pen and pad ready to take any notes
- Have some familiarity with the position for which you are applying
- Be clear about what skills you have to offer
- Ask supervisor what new skills can be gained from this position and training opportunities
- Clarify who will supervise you and what job responsibilities you will be assigned
- Have a positive attitude
- Establish with the FWS supervisor if the position will be remote, in person, or a combination. If the position is listed as in person, find out what the requirements are to work in person at that site.
  - For example: Brooklyn College has specific guidelines to gain entrance to the campus and requirements for working in various on-campus locations. An eligible student who completes the placement process can only be paid for the time worked.
THE NEXT STEP

- After the interview, if the supervisor is interested in hiring you, they must immediately submit an online “hire request” for you on the NextGen: JobX system.
- The student will complete their section of Form I-9.
- The supervisor must complete their section of Form I-9.
  - The student must make copies of the required documents presented to the supervisor.
  - The completed Form I-9 with appropriate documents will be uploaded for the FWS staff to review.
- Once the FWS Office staff receives your online hire request from the supervisor, Form I-9 and required documents, we will review all forms and send you an Acknowledgement of Pay Rate and Payday form, formerly referred to as the Labor Form.
- After the student completes their sections they return the form via email to the FWS office staff who has been assisting them in this process.
- A staff member will review that form and send out a Hire Approval email and a copy of the Labor Form to both the student and the supervisor(s) which will state the first day they may begin working.
The student and supervisor will receive an email stating that your hire request has been approved and work may begin. Do not report to work until you receive the approval email from the Federal Work -Study Program.

- The earliest start date for students will be the date on their Notice and Acknowledgement of Pay Rate and Payday form (formerly referred to as the Labor Form).
- Students and supervisors will be emailed a copy of the Notice and Acknowledgement of Pay Rate and Payday form.

Be sure to reference and follow the FWS Payroll Schedule, which is on the Brooklyn College and NextGen websites.

Students may not work as a FWS employee without following the required procedures and receiving the approval email.
STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

- By accepting a Federal Work Study position students become employed by a job site that depends on them to perform job duties.
- Maintain the work schedule you and your supervisor agreed upon.
- Learn your duties and complete all assignments on time and as instructed.
- Conduct yourself in a professional manner at all times.
- Always notify your supervisor if you are running late or cannot report to work.
- You may not work during your scheduled class times or on legal holidays.
- You may only be paid for the hours you worked. Students can work a maximum of 20 hours per week.
- A mandatory half-hour break is required after six hours of consecutive work.
- You are responsible for tracking your hours and may not exceed your FWS offer.
- Verify each pay period that your supervisor submitted your accurate time sheet on time.
- If you withdraw, take a leave of absence, or are academically dismissed from school inform your supervisor and the FWS staff immediately. After that, you may not continue to work.
- If you have a legal name change after being placed, contact the FWS Payroll Assistant immediately by email in order to submit appropriate documents.
ON THE JOB BEHAVIOR FOR FWS STUDENTS

- Show initiative
  - Learn all you can about the job site or department in which you work. The more you know about the area, the more valuable you will become to the team.

- Be part of the team
  - Have a positive attitude. Be cooperative and show a willingness to learn.

- Always strive to do your best
  - Your work reflects your attitude as well as your level of competency.

- Conduct yourself in a professional manner
  - Maintain confidentiality of all information.
Know your area of responsibility
- Complete your work thoroughly and accurately. If you do not understand or you are unsure of your assignment always ask questions.

Keep socializing to a minimum
- Socializing that lowers efficiency and productivity is not acceptable.

Limit personal phone calls
- Only official calls should be made on a business telephone.

Use titles correctly
- You will be meeting, addressing and contacting people with various titles. Remember to address people by their correct title.

Represent your job site well
- You may be the first contact that a person has with the job site. Remember the manner in which the person is received leaves a lasting impression.
How many hours can I work per week?
Twenty (20) hours is the maximum.

Can I earn as much money as I want?
No. Your FWS offer represents the maximum amount you may earn for your placement period. How much of the total offer you actually receive depends on your rate of pay, the total number of hours you work each week, and the number of weeks you work.

- You cannot be paid with FWS funds for hours worked in excess of your offer. Once you have earned your maximum FWS offer or are no longer eligible to participate in the program, you must stop working.
- The FWS offer can only be earned by working. Any remaining offer balance is not paid to the student.

Are my FWS earnings taxable?
FWS earnings are considered taxable income by both federal, city, and state governments. If you are required to file a tax return, your FWS earnings are to be reported as wages.

- FWS earnings are excluded in the calculation of your eligibility for federal financial aid. (See FAFSA instructions)
- If you work off-campus, or if you work during periods of non-enrollment (such as winter intersession and summer or spring break), FICA (Social Security taxes) may be deducted from your earnings.
I am currently receiving unemployment. Do I have to report earnings with the unemployment office?

Yes. If you are currently receiving unemployment benefits, you should contact the NYS Department of Labor before accepting a FWS job to see how this might affect your benefit rate or continued eligibility for unemployment.

How do I get a letter verifying that I am working in the FWS program?

You may request a FWS employment verification letter. Please contact the office via email (fws@brooklyn.cuny.edu) for additional information. When the campus is open you must physically pick up the letter confirming your employment history. We cannot send employment information to any agency on your behalf. During the time the campus is closed due to the pandemic the information will be sent to you via e-mail once we verify your identity.

Students should retain copies of their placement documents, hire approval email, and all payroll files (time sheets, check stubs, etc.) for future reference.
Supervisors and students must follow the FWS Payroll Schedule to properly complete and submit time sheets. Time sheets are generally for a period of two weeks.

Supervisors must complete the time sheet entry every day the student reports for work on TimesheetX.

Time sheets are submitted online by the FWS supervisor. Review your time sheet at the end of each day to verify your supervisor has input the correct times that you worked.
Work Schedules:

- The FWS supervisor and student should discuss the work schedule to best utilize the FWS offer allocated for each semester.

- Students must have a work schedule that does not conflict with their class schedule. The supervisor will not be allowed to enter time worked during times your classes are scheduled to meet on CUNYfirst.

- Students will not be able to work on days when the college is officially closed.

- Work schedules should be formulated based on quarter-hour, half-hour, or hour intervals.

- Work schedule - Minimum of 6 hours and maximum of 20 hours per week. If there is a different maximum it will be stated on the job description.

- Students must take a minimum half hour break after the 6th consecutive hour of work.

- FWS students cannot work during the time when the supervisor or designated alternate supervisor (college employee) will not be present when employment is in person.

- Due to the current budget, funds may not be available to increase FWS offers.

- Constantly monitor your utilization of your FWS offer and do not exceed that amount.

A Form W-2 is obtainable through CUNYfirst at the end of each calendar year by navigating to:

- Self Service -> Payroll and Compensation -> View Work-Study W-2/W-2c Forms

All wages paid in that calendar year will appear on the Form W-2.

Refer to the IRS website for tax-filing requirements.
