WHEREAS, the official observance of African American Heritage Week has been the Heritage and Culture Commission's opportunity to express appreciation and gratitude for the contributions of African Americans to American society and culture. This observance is a reminder of the contributions of African Americans to American society and culture, and an inspiration to continue to respect and honor the achievements of African Americans.

WHEREAS, the observance of African American Heritage Week has been the Heritage and Culture Commission's opportunity to express appreciation and gratitude for the contributions of African Americans to American society and culture. This observance is a reminder of the contributions of African Americans to American society and culture, and an inspiration to continue to respect and honor the achievements of African Americans.

WHEREAS, the observance of African American Heritage Week has been the Heritage and Culture Commission's opportunity to express appreciation and gratitude for the contributions of African Americans to American society and culture. This observance is a reminder of the contributions of African Americans to American society and culture, and an inspiration to continue to respect and honor the achievements of African Americans.

WHEREAS, the observance of African American Heritage Week has been the Heritage and Culture Commission's opportunity to express appreciation and gratitude for the contributions of African Americans to American society and culture. This observance is a reminder of the contributions of African Americans to American society and culture, and an inspiration to continue to respect and honor the achievements of African Americans.
two thousand twentythirtieth day of June in the year

New York, in the City of Albany.

Given under my hand and the seal of the

STATE OF NEW YORK

Secretary to the Governor

BY THE GOVERNOR

[Signature]

[Seal]

Both employees, who are required to work, shall receive one day of compensation, in lieu of any other compensation, in the event of a holiday.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ANDREW M. CUOMO, Governor of the State of New York, by virtue of the Constitution of the State of New York, specially Article IV, Section one, and the laws of the [Signature]