

F-1 Curricular Practical Training (CPT)

Curricular Practical Training (CPT) as stated in Federal regulations is either related to a course, internship, practicum, externship, practical experience, mentored learning, or is a cooperative work study that is part of an agreement between the school and an employer.

Brooklyn College does not have many majors that have required internships. Therefore, the Office of International Student Services has used its' professional judgment and allowed students to intern off-campus so that they may gain work experience in their MAJOR or a related field of study in the United States.

Types of CPT

CPT is available in the following cases:

- required part of program- the program requires employment in the field of study to graduate.
- non-required part of program- the practical experience is not for credit but directly related to your field of study.

Part-time vs. Full-time CPT

- Part-time CPT: Employment for 20 hours or less per week is considered “part-time” CPT. Though there is no limitation upon the length of time you may participate in part-time CPT, you must be simultaneously enrolled full-time in order to maintain lawful F-1 status.
- Full-time CPT: Employment for more than 20 hours per week is considered “full-time” CPT. Please be aware that 12 months or more of full-time CPT will cancel your eligibility for Optional Practical Training (OPT).

General Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible for Curricular Practical Training, you must:

- have been lawfully enrolled on a full-time basis for one full academic year;
- currently be maintaining a full-time program of study and valid F-1 status; and,
- have a job offer.

Undergraduate Students

- In order to participate in CPT, you must have completed a minimum of 30 CREDITS.
- If you recently arrived in the United States to attend Brooklyn College for the first time as a transfer student, you are not eligible for CPT. You must receive your transfer evaluation (if applicable).
- You must be enrolled for the current semester and maintaining full-time status throughout the semester. You may intern in your last semester even if you have less than 12 credits remaining to complete your program.
- You must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.25 or above. Students who are on academic probation are not eligible for CPT.
- Official withdrawal (W) or Unofficial (WU) withdrawal from classes that will reduce your enrollment to less than full time will prohibit your participation in the internship program the following semester.

Graduate Students

- You must complete at least 18 CREDITS in your major concentration at the graduate level unless it is a You are required to maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.50 or above. Students who are on academic probation are not eligible for CPT.
