A guide to Netiquette: Etiquette on Internet

by Arizona State University Online

| Be Scholarly | Do: Use proper language, grammar, and spelling. Be explanatory. Justify your opinions. Credit the ideas of others by citing or linking to scholarly resources.
Avoid: Misinforming others when you may not know the answer. When you are guessing about something, clearly state that you do not have all the information. |
| Be Respectful | Do: Respect privacy. Respect diversity and opinions that differ from your own. Communicate Tactical, and basic disagreement on scholarly ideas for research evidence.
Avoid: Sharing other person's professional or personal information. |
| Be Professional | Do: Represent yourself well at all times. Be truthful, accurate, and a run a final spell check. Right in legible black font and size limit the use of emoticons.
Avoid: Using profanity while participating in hostile interactions (flaming). |
| Be Polite | Do: Address others by name or appropriate title and be mindful of your tone. Be polite as you would in a face-to-face situation.
Avoid: Using sarcasm, being rude or writing all capital letters (shouting). Written words can be easily misinterpreted, as they lack facial expressions and body language, and tone of voice. |
Policy and Related Service

The City University’s Policy on Academic Integrity:
The faculty and administration of Brooklyn College support an environment free from cheating and plagiarism. Each student is responsible for being aware of what constitutes cheating and plagiarism and for avoiding both. The complete text of the CUNY Academic Integrity Policy and the Brooklyn College procedure for implementing that policy can be found at this site: http://www.brooklyn.cuny.edu/bc/policies. If a faculty member suspects a violation of academic integrity and, upon investigation, confirms that violation, or if the student admits the violation, the faculty member MUST report the violation.

The Center for Student Disability Services
To receive disability-related academic accommodations students must first be registered with the Center for Student Disability Services. Students who have a documented disability or suspect they may have a disability are invited to set up an appointment with the Director of the Center for Student Disability Services, Ms. Valerie Stewart-Lovell at 718-951-5538. If you have already registered with the Center for Student Disability Services, please provide me with the course accommodation form and discuss your specific accommodation.
