Requirements:

Attendance: More than 3 unexcused absences, and the grade will be dropped one grade point for each absence. Students arriving more than 15 minutes late will not be admitted to class.

Class participation: Students are expected to participate in class discussions giving comments relevant to the text and readings. Texting on phones or surfing the internet will result in a dropped grade.

Paper: Write a 7 page paper (Times New Roman, 11 font, 1” margins top, bottom, sides) that is critical analysis of any reading to date (this section is an exegesis only, and should take about 5 – 51/2 pages of your paper) followed by a page to a page and a half of your argument against or for it. I offer to meet with each student individually to discuss this after I hand the paper back to you.

The paper can be re-written, responding to the professor’s comments. That grade is the final grade.

Student Presentation: Students will have selected a topic (to be handed out by the professor). The student will do extensive research on the topic, gaining information from at least ten different sources (culled from NYTimes Business Section, Barron’s, Business Week, WSJ, The Financial Times, Fortune). The presentation will be 8-10 minutes, and will be given from note cards, not read directly from a paper. Powerpoint in permitted.

Test: Final, true/false test.

Assessment and Grading:

Paper due Feb. 22 30%

Presentation Re-write due March 12 25%

Final Exam 25%

Class participation 10%
Goals of Course:
1. Students will gain a basic understanding of the broad discipline of ethics, and its application to business
2. Students will develop their critical reasoning skills
3. Students will develop their ability to write and verbally communicate their ideas

Plagiarism:
Will not be tolerated. Plagiarism consists of copying something and not giving credit to the author.

Contact:
Email: DSHOTTKIRK@brooklyn.cuny.edu office hours: Monday 5-6. My office is 3311 Boylan. I do not check email over the weekend. Please limit emails to essential communication; it is not necessary to email regarding missed classes. It is better to speak in person regarding that.

How to succeed in this class:
Keep up on readings. Come to class prepared and expect to read the texts at least twice. Outline the main points.
Quiz yourself or have a classmate quiz you.
Participate in Class Discussions. If you have not understood some of the material, ask in class for a fuller explanation.
Study for the test with a study group.
Re-write the papers. I offer students the chance to re-write their papers and to raise the grade on the basis of the comments I make. (one time offer per paper only!)

Disability:
Students must request academic accommodations within first two weeks of semester. Please talk to me privately if there is an issue you would like me to help you with. In order to receive disability-related academic accommodations, students must first be registered with the Center for Student Disability Services (CSDS). Students who have a documented disability or suspect they may have a disability are invited to set up an appointment with the director of the CSDS, Valerie Stewart-Lovell, 138 Roosevelt Hall, 718.951.5538. If you have already registered with the CSDS, please provide me with the paperwork.
