Loan Proration for Graduating Borrowers
Per Federal regulation, Brooklyn College is required to prorate an undergraduate student’s annual loan limit when they are enrolled for one semester and will graduate in the same academic year.

Loan Proration Formula:

\text{# of enrolled credits} \times \frac{\text{# of credit hours in an academic year (24)}}{\text{Annual Federal loan limit}}

Note: If you complete the loan application incorrectly and fail to inform our office of your graduation prior to the disbursement of your loans, your loans may be adjusted after we confirm graduation, which can result in a reduction of your loan and a liability with the college.

Federal loan interest rates and origination fees are finalized each year and announced by the Federal Government in June. For current rates and fees, visit www.studentaid.ed.gov. Click on Types of Aid > Loans > Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loans

Visit the National Student Loan Data Base System (NSLDS) website at www.nslds.ed.gov to access a full history of your loans and Title IV grants, find out information about your loan servicer and interest accrued on existing loans.

Student Responsibility: You MUST check your email and CUNYfirst account’s list of “To-Do” items frequently! All communication from the Office of Financial Aid will be listed on your “To-Do” list and sent to you via the email you have on file with CUNYfirst!

Financial Aid Pending Indicator

If you are utilizing this loan for tuition payment, be sure to submit your loan request at least 7 business days before your tuition deadline. If your loan is completed in a timely manner, a temporary “Financial Aid Pending” indicator will be placed on your account to secure your courses while your loan is being processed. Note: Financial Aid Pending Indicators only apply to the start of every semester to accommodate for tuition deadlines. You can view indicators on the upper right corner of your Student Center.

View Your Loan as “Pending Aid”

After your loan has been processed by the Loan Department, utilize the “Account Inquiry” link to view your “pending aid”. Pending means that you have been awarded the aid, and it is being used as a credit towards your tuition bill, but has not been officially disbursed.
