Subject: [BC] NYC DOE mid-year teaching positions, and reminders

Dear Brooklyn College Student:

The New York City Dept. of Education (NYCDOE) has mid-year teaching positions for the 2020-2021 school year.

Recent alumni and/or students who will soon graduate may wish to take advantage of mid-year teaching opportunities available now through March 2021, especially if they received their certification in the fall of 2019.

More information: http://www.brooklyn.cuny.edu/web/MidYear_Hiring_Flyer_NYC_DOE.pdf

You can always check the Brooklyn College Educator Certification website:
<http://www.brooklyn.cuny.edu/web/academics/schools/education/certification.php> for information on

- * Updates and Frequently Asked Questions
 - * Career resources
 - * Certification requirements and procedures
- and related matters.

Please also check the NY State Dept. of Education Office of Teaching Initiatives (OTI) site for current rules: www.highered.nysed.gov/tcert Rules are subject to change.

If you will graduate in the spring or summer of 2021, here are two reminders:

- * File a graduation audit on time. More information:
<http://www.brooklyn.cuny.edu/web/about/administration/enrollment/registrar/graduation.php>
- * Check your NY State TEACH account at www.highered.nysed.gov/tcert

Is your data complete?

If your workshops or fingerprint records are not listed on your account, please see the instructions on Brooklyn College Educator Certification website.

I will have Certification Town Hall meetings on Zoom about every two weeks this fall. The next meetings will be on Dec. 10 and 22, 6pm-7pm. If you would like to participate in a group Zoom meeting, please fill in this form <https://tinyurl.com/HelenSpencerTownHall>

You can check the Contact Us section of the Brooklyn College Educator Certification website for more Town Hall meeting dates.

If you have questions for me, please confirm your CUNYfirst EMPLID number or the last four digits of your Social Security number.

Be well,

Helen Spencer
