

CHILDREN'S STUDIES 91: PROFESSIONAL PERSPECTIVES AND CHILDREN
SPRING 2010
GUEST SPEAKER: SHERRY M. CLEARY
MARCH 15, 2010

SHERRY M. CLEARY

Executive Director
New York City Early Childhood Professional Development Institute
The City University of New York

Sherry M. Cleary is the Executive Director of the New York City Early Childhood Professional Development Institute, which is housed at the City University of New York. She is also the President of the New York State Association of Early Childhood Teacher Educators (NYSAECTE). She co-chairs the Work Force Workgroup of the Governor's Early Childhood Advisory Council.

Ms. Cleary has worked in the field of early childhood education as a classroom teacher, a program administrator, and as both a faculty member and higher education administration for more than 30 years. For the 14 years prior to this, Sherry was at the University of Pittsburgh where she was the Director of the University Child Development Center, the founding and Executive Director of the University of Pittsburgh Institute for Excellence in Early Childhood Education, and a faculty member in the School of Education, teaching a full-time load of graduate courses. Before re-locating to New York City, Sherry served on several Boards of Directors and College Advisory Boards as well as presided over national and regional membership organizations. Sherry is often a guest speaker, presenter, and consultant.
